

Wolsey Hall Oxford Course Fees for Examination Years

New Students: IGCSE / GCSE

Included in your Wolsey Hall course

All our course fees include any course textbooks or e-books, access to online learning materials and subscriptions, as well as access to some free Wolsey Hall courses and guides. You will be allocated a Student Progress Manager to support you on your journey, in conjunction with your allocated Tutors who will provide periodic feedback on progress, and be available via our messaging system on our learning platform.

In addition, you will have access to the Wolsey Hall Community area, Clubs, the Virtual Library and the Secondary Student Forum (age-dependent).

Each IGCSE or GCSE course covers curriculum content equivalent to two academic years of study and is designed to be studied over two academic years. These courses have a maximum 24-month access term, which is agreed on enrolment and which ends when the examinations have been taken on the selected exam date.

How our course fees work

We offer course bundles so the more subjects a student enrolls on, the lower the cost of each course. It is possible to study at different examination levels within the IGCSE and A levels phases (this does not include enrolling on the same subject at different levels at the same time), if the entry criteria are met. Our Wolsey Hall Oxford Admissions team will be able to advise if you have any questions about combining courses from Pre-examination Years with courses from Examination Years.

The tables on the next pages outline these bundle fees. To find the price per course, use the column that represents the total number of courses that your child will be enrolling on now for this academic year, e.g. if your child is enrolling on 5 IGCSE courses, please use the column entitled “5+ course bundle” to see the course prices.

Additional benefits

We offer a 10% discount to the sibling of a new or current student of Wolsey Hall. The first student from a family enrolled with Wolsey Hall will not receive a sibling discount.

The fees shown on the following pages are for payment in full and they include a discount of approximately 5%. If you wish to pay by instalment, please indicate this when you request a quote. You will then make an initial payment followed by six consecutive monthly payments.

The fees shown below are for payment in full and they include a discount of approximately 5%. If you wish to pay by instalment, please indicate this when you request a quote. You will then make an initial payment followed by six consecutive monthly payments.

Step 1: Count Your Course Subjects: List out all the subjects you want to take.

Step 2: Find the Matching Bundle: Once you know how many subjects you are taking, find the corresponding bundle column. For instance, if you are taking 5 subjects, look at the 5+ Course Bundle column.

Step 3: Check the Fees: In the bundle column you found, locate each subject you listed and note down its fee.

Example: Oliver is going to study 6 IGCSE subjects so his prices are in the 5+ course bundle column - English Language (£730), Maths (£730), French (£1,170), Geography (£670) Economics (£670) and Combined Science (£670). His total cost of courses will be £4,640 plus the £95 registration fee.
